

JUST CONTACT YOUR GP PRACTICE

If you've had a cough for three weeks or more and it isn't COVID-19, don't ignore it. It's probably nothing serious but it could be a sign of cancer.

Your NHS is here to see you safely. nhs.uk/cancersymptoms

